

Some Statutory and Regulatory Requirements to be Complied with in Implementing Tsunami Relief Projects

(This list is not comprehensive, but represents only some of the Key Statutory / Regulatory Provisions to be complied)

- 1 Coast Conservation Act. No. 57 of 1981.
- 2 Coast Conservation (Amendment) Act No. 64 of 1988.
- 3 Powers delegated to the Sri Lanka Police to deal with unauthorized constructions, under Section 35 of the Coast Conservation (Amendment) Act No. 64 of 1988.
- 4 Urban Development Law No. 41 of 1978.
- 5 Urban Development (Amendment) Act No. 4 of 1982.
- 6 Urban Development (Special Provisions) Act. No. 44 of 1984
- 7 Chapter 252 – Municipal Council Ordinance
- 8 Chapter 255 – Urban Council Ordinance.
- 9 Pradeshiya Sabha Act No. 15 of 1987.
- 10 Guidelines for Donor Agencies Regarding Rehabilitation/Location of Tsunami Affected Schools, (Issued by the Ministry of Education, Isurupaya, Battaramulla).
- 11 Physical Planning Guidelines and Project Proposals for the Vulnerable Coastal Zones in Sri Lanka – January, 2005 (Issued by the Physical Planning Department – This is available in the web site of the Ministry of Urban Development and Water Supply; Urban Lanka.lk)
- 12 Circular of the Secretary to the Treasury no. FP/T/2/3/26(B) dated 03.03.2005 on “Duty Waivers on items Donated/Imported to provide relief of the Tsunami Victims”.